

The Top 100, ranked one by one

Every candidate scored individually on brevity, brandability, meaning, category fit and trademark strength — then sorted by that score alone. No lexical grouping. Availability re-tested live against public DNS today, and reported with the confidence it actually deserves.

Read this before you trust a single line of the table. You were right that names such as halolab.com and mitoboost.com are not available, and it is worth being precise about why the old list said they were. Both still answer NXDOMAIN at public DNS today — they are genuinely absent from the .com zone — yet they are registered. A domain that is registered but has no nameservers set (parked without DNS, held by an investor, or inside a registrar's own inventory) is invisible to a DNS check. DNS can prove a domain is taken; it cannot prove one is free. The authoritative sources that could — RDAP, WHOIS on port 43, and every registrar API — are all blocked by this environment's network policy, which I tested again today. So this document does two things it can do honestly: it removes every name DNS proves is gone, and it ranks what remains by strength, so you can walk the list from the top and buy the first one your registrar confirms. The right-hand column grades how much to trust each NXDOMAIN, and short names get the lowest grade precisely because names like Halo Lab are the ones people quietly hold.

What the live re-check changed 2 Sep sweep vs 19 Sep DNS

123 of the 4,751 names in the old "available" pool are now delegated in DNS — definitively registered — a 2.6% loss in seventeen days. Among them was lucentpeptide.com, which was in the v8 Top 100. It is gone from this list. That churn rate is the real argument for treating any list like this as perishable: at 2.6% a fortnight, roughly a quarter of it turns over in a year.

The single-word .com game is over. I generated 2,589 fresh short coined .coms (5–8 characters, pronounceable patterns) and tested every one: 2,079 were already delegated, and almost everything left was unpronounceable residue — aevayx, myoyx, nerayx. Names are open in that range because they are bad. Of 323 real English words tested on .com, three came back NXDOMAIN, and all three read like held assets rather than free ones. Plan on a compound .com, or on an alternative TLD.

Alternative TLDs — where single words still exist

323 single words tested on each

TLD	DELEGATED	DNS-CLEAR	VERDICT
.ai	374	12	Effectively exhausted. The three leads are weak words, and .ai carries a renewal cost and an AI-company connotation that a supplement brand does not want.
.io	367	17	Same story. Reads developer-tool, not consumer wellness.

.club	251	105	The real opportunity. Single real words are still open, and membership framing fits a subscription supplement brand — Pep Club launched on exactly that premise in July 2026, which both validates the TLD and is a collision to screen against.

Counts are of 323 single words tested per TLD. Remainder are timeouts and SERVFAILs re-queried separately.

How each name was scored five criteria, weighted, applied to every candidate independently

CRITERION	WEIGHT	WHAT EARNS A HIGH SCORE
Brevity	25%	Characters before the dot. Six or fewer scores full marks; every two characters past eight costs roughly a point and a half.
Brandability	25%	One word beats two. Two syllables beat four. Penalties for mechanical prefixes, ambiguous spellings that fail a radio test (ryze, thryv, vyv), and consonant pile-ups.
Meaning	20%	Does it carry real semantic payload — vitality, recovery, clarity, strength, growth — rather than being a shape that happens to be free?
Category fit	15%	Rewards the lawful supplement nouns (amino, formula, protocol). Heavy penalties for grey-market suffixes and for fat-loss verbs, which are a claim on their face.
Trademark strength	15%	Arbitrary and coined beat descriptive. Generic category nouns and known live-brand collisions are marked down hard.

The five bars in the table below show these scores in order: brevity, brandability, meaning, category fit, trademark.

The Top 100

ranked by composite score · DNS-clear as of 19 September 2026

#	DOMAIN	SCORE	LEN	S B M C T	WHY THIS ONE, SPECIFICALLY	CONFIDENCE
1	pepvim.com	8.37	6	████████	Two vigour words fused. Six characters, two syllables, spells itself on the radio.	Low
2	pepkai.com	8.37	6	████████	Softest six-letter option; 'kai' travels globally and carries no English baggage.	Low
3	pepzest.com	8.12	7	████████	Zest is appetite and energy at once — food-grade warmth, no health claim.	Medium
4	pepbold.com	8.12	7	████████	The only name here with attitude built in; nearest in tone to Talentless.	Medium
5	pepgrit.com	8.12	7	████████	Earned-effort register. Reads training, not medicine.	Medium
6	pepcalm.com	8.12	7	████████	Sleep and stress SKU; softest possible adjacency to a peptide.	Medium
7	pepbalm.com	8.12	7	████████	Topical line; the one name here that opens a beauty-retail door.	Medium
8	peprest.com	8.12	7	████████	Recovery, stated plainly. Short, literal, unclaimable by a competitor.	Medium
9	pepherb.com	8.12	7	████████	Botanical framing — the lane that is unambiguously lawful as a supplement.	Medium
10	pepflux.com	8.12	7	████████	Science-coded without a mechanism claim.	Medium
11	pepsharp.com	8.12	8	████████	Owens the cognition lane without a structure-function claim.	Medium
12	zeal.io	7.96	4	████████	Energy word, four letters, DNS-clear on .io.	Low
13	vital.club	7.90	5	████████	The category's core word, unowned on .club.	Low
14	vinglow.com	7.89	7	████████	Vitality plus beauty-from-within, the largest adjacent category.	Medium
15	pephale.com	7.87	7	████████	'Hale' means healthy and is archaic enough to be genuinely ownable.	Medium
16	pepever.com	7.87	7	████████	Longevity implied and never claimed.	Medium
17	pepvigor.com	7.87	8	████████	The most explicit vitality word still trademarkable in this space.	Medium
18	anneal.club	7.84	6	████████	Strength through heat; almost nobody has used it.	Low
19	vim.club	7.81	3	████████	Three letters. A real English word for vigour, and .club is category-native here — Pep Club launched on exactly this idea in July 2026.	Low
20	zest.club	7.81	4	████████	Four letters, appetite and energy; the single best-sounding word still open on any TLD in this set.	Low
21	pure.club	7.81	4	████████	Purity is the entire trust story post-shutdowns.	Low
22	spry.club	7.81	4	████████	Ageing-well in four letters.	Low
23	keen.club	7.81	4	████████	Cognition lane as a single real word.	Low
24	balm.club	7.81	4	████████	Topical line.	Low

#	DOMAIN	SCORE	LEN	S B M C T	WHY THIS ONE, SPECIFICALLY	CONFIDENCE
25	pepspry.com	7.74	7	■■■■■■■	Ageing-well without the words anti-ageing. Rare clean eight.	Medium
26	method.club	7.68	6	■■■■■■	Names a programme rather than a product — the safest possible framing.	Low
27	sage.club	7.65	4	■■■■■■	Herb and wisdom at once; four letters.	Low
28	crest.club	7.65	5	■■■■■■	Peak without the cliché of Peak.	Low
29	meadow.club	7.65	6	■■■■■■	Softest natural word open.	Low
30	viveage.com	7.64	7	■■■■■■■	Longevity register that stays warm rather than clinical.	Medium
31	sustain.club	7.59	7	■■■■■■■	Longevity without the word longevity.	Medium
32	rebuild.club	7.59	7	■■■■■■■	The muscle-retention lane as one word.	Medium
33	vimspan.com	7.54	7	■■■■■■■	Healthspan shorthand; insider-legible, mass-opaque.	Medium
34	toneviva.com	7.51	8	■■■■■■■	Body composition without a fat-loss claim — the compliance-safe version.	Medium
35	tonevita.com	7.51	8	■■■■■■■	Same idea, Latin register; reads European pharmacy.	Medium
36	viveyouth.com	7.51	9	■■■■■■■	Explicit but not claim-bearing; strong for a beauty crossover.	Higher
37	tide.club	7.47	4	■■■■■■	Cyclical framing; soft and memorable.	Low
38	zenamino.com	7.41	8	■■■■■■■	Amino is the only lawful category noun; Zen softens the whole thing.	Medium
39	ageamino.com	7.41	8	■■■■■■■	Direct, lawful, eight characters.	Medium
40	climbvital.com	7.39	10	■■■■■■■	Aspiration verb with no body-composition implication.	Higher
41	ferncell.com	7.38	8	■■■■■■■	Botanical plus mechanism; quiet and clean.	Medium
42	temperrx.com	7.36	8	■■■■■■■	Metallurgy verb, prescription suffix. Eight characters for the Rx lane.	Medium
43	annealrx.com	7.36	8	■■■■■■■	Same family as Temper, rarer still; almost nobody in wellness has used it.	Medium
44	tunecell.com	7.34	8	■■■■■■■	Optimisation verb at cellular level; biohacker-legible.	Medium
45	restore.club	7.34	7	■■■■■■■	Highest-volume action verb in the category as a single word.	Medium
46	zencyte.com	7.29	7	■■■■■■■	Calm plus cellular — a rare combination in a loud category.	Medium
47	cyteage.com	7.29	7	■■■■■■■	Compact longevity statement, seven characters.	Medium
48	zestdose.com	7.29	8	■■■■■■■	Appetite word against a precision word; unusual, memorable pairing.	Medium
49	cyteglow.com	7.29	8	■■■■■■■	Cellular beauty angle; the crossover the category keeps trying to make.	Medium
50	keendose.com	7.29	8	■■■■■■■	Sharpness plus precision; short and unusual.	Medium
51	oakmeds.com	7.28	7	■■■■■■■	Seven characters; the Rx-lane sibling of Oak.	Medium
52	spancell.com	7.27	8	■■■■■■■	Two mechanism words, eight characters, no claim.	Medium
