The Offering

We are pleased to present a private opportunity to acquire six certified keys spanning the Silver and Bronze Ages: the first appearances of the Fantastic Four, Spider-Man, Mysterio, Ghost Rider, and Wolverine, together with the debut of Superman's Fortress of Solitude. Every book is professionally graded and encapsulated by CGC, with the certification number, page quality, and creative credits set out in the pages that follow. The group leads with an Amazing Fantasy #15 carrying a QES sticker — independent recognition of superior quality within its grade.

LOT 1 OF 6

Amazing Fantasy #15

Marvel Comics · August 1962

CERTIFIED GRADE

CGC 8.0

OFF-WHITE PAGES · QES

CGC CERT NO.	1971545001
STORY	Stan Lee
ART	Steve Ditko
COVER	Jack Kirby

SIGNIFICANCE

The origin and first appearance of Spider-Man (Peter Parker), along with the first appearances of Uncle Ben and Aunt May. The single most important Silver Age comic book and the definitive Marvel key.

THIS COPY

A handsome high-grade copy with off-white pages, bearing a QES (Quality Evaluation Service) sticker — an independent endorsement of superior quality within the grade, assessing color strike, spine, cover edges, and staple placement.

OFFERED AT

$375,000

LOT 2 OF 6

Marvel Spotlight #5

Marvel Comics · August 1972

CERTIFIED GRADE

CGC 9.8

WHITE PAGES

CGC CERT NO.	4757016020
STORY	Gary Friedrich & Roy Thomas
ART	Mike Ploog
COVER	Mike Ploog

SIGNIFICANCE

The origin and first appearance of Ghost Rider (Johnny Blaze), with the first appearance of Roxanne Simpson. The defining supernatural key of the Bronze Age, behind a classic Mike Ploog cover.

THIS COPY

A stunning CGC 9.8 with white pages — the top tier of certified examples of this book, and the grade sophisticated collectors compete for.

OFFERED AT

$325,000

LOT 3 OF 6

Fantastic Four #1

Marvel Comics · November 1961

CERTIFIED GRADE

CGC 8.5

OFF-WHITE PAGES

CGC CERT NO.	1201137001
STORY	Stan Lee
ART	Jack Kirby
COVER	Jack Kirby

SIGNIFICANCE

The origin and first appearance of the Fantastic Four — Marvel's first super-hero team — and the Mole Man. The book that launched the Marvel Universe and, with it, the modern age of comics.

THIS COPY

A strong, well-presenting high-grade copy with off-white pages. Fantastic Four #1 is notoriously difficult in grades above Very Fine, making an 8.5 a genuine collection centerpiece.

OFFERED AT

$220,000

LOT 4 OF 6

The Incredible Hulk #181

Marvel Comics · November 1974

CERTIFIED GRADE

CGC 9.8

OFF-WHITE TO WHITE PAGES

CGC CERT NO.	4748401011
STORY	Len Wein
ART	Herb Trimpe & Jack Abel
COVER	Herb Trimpe & John Romita

SIGNIFICANCE

The first full appearance of Wolverine (James “Logan” Howlett), with a Wendigo appearance. The most important Bronze Age comic book and one of the most demanded keys in the entire hobby.

THIS COPY

A pristine CGC 9.8 with off-white to white pages — the trophy grade for this perennially sought-after book.

OFFERED AT

$80,000

LOT 5 OF 6

The Amazing Spider-Man #13

Marvel Comics · June 1964

CERTIFIED GRADE

CGC 9.4 WHITE PAGES

CGC CERT NO.	3949630002
STORY	Stan Lee
ART	Steve Ditko
COVER	Steve Ditko

SIGNIFICANCE

The origin and first appearance of Mysterio (Quentin Beck), one of the great villains of Spider-Man's rogues' gallery, with cover and interior art by Steve Ditko.

THIS COPY

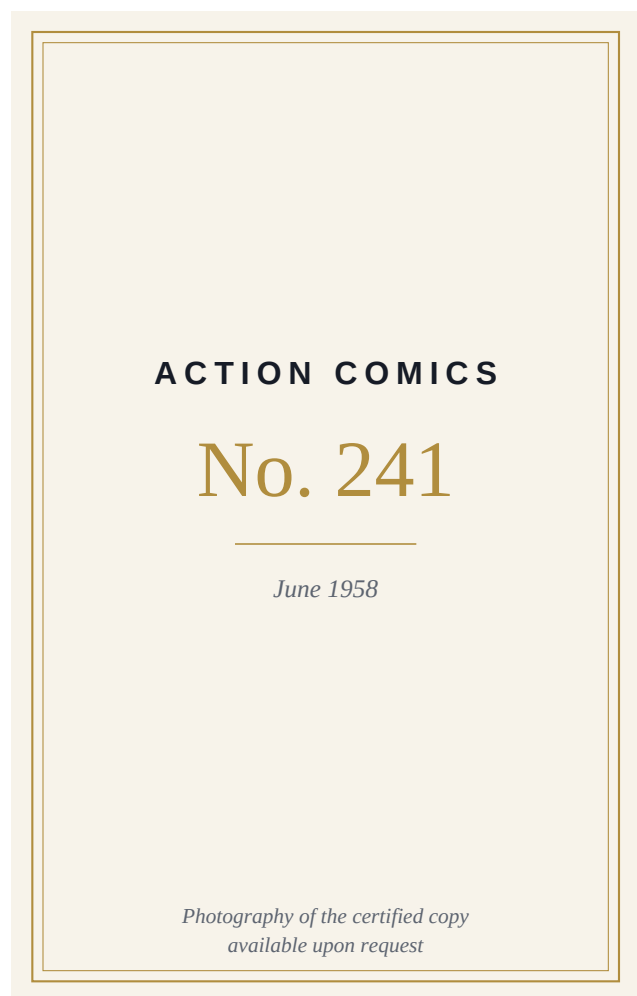

An exceptional CGC 9.4 with white pages — outstanding preservation for an early Ditko Amazing Spider-Man issue.

OFFERED AT

$27,500

LOT 6 OF 6

Action Comics #241

DC Comics · June 1958

CERTIFIED GRADE

CGC 9.2 WHITE PAGES

CGC CERT NO.	4614192004
STORY	Jerry Coleman & Otto Binder
ART	Wayne Boring, Jim Mooney & Howard Sherman
COVER	Curt Swan

SIGNIFICANCE

The first appearance of the Fortress of Solitude (“Fort Superman”), one of the enduring pillars of Superman mythology, in the story “The Super-Key to Fort Superman.” Also features a Batman appearance, behind a classic Curt Swan cover.

THIS COPY

A superb CGC 9.2 with white pages — a genuinely scarce state of preservation for a late-1950s DC title, and the top end of the market for this key.

OFFERED AT

$27,500
